

Community Relations

Responsibilities of School Personnel

Representatives of the school system should be instructed to place a positive and factual light on all school system matters.

These persons should also be aware that they are representatives of the school system by virtue of their employment, and, as such, influence the public image of the school system.